Answers

1. False – Creativity is a skill that can be developed and nurtured over time by anyone.
2. False – Creativity is not limited to artists or musicians; it can be expressed by anyone in any field, including science, business, and everyday life.
3. False – You don't need inspiration to create something original. Creativity can also come from hard work, practice, along with exploring new ideas.
4. False – Creativity often benefits from collaboration and feedback. Working with other people can spark new perspectives and ideas.
5. True – Deadlines can actually help focus creativity and encourage productivity, even though creativity may also thrive without pressure.
6. False – Creative ideas often evolve and refine over time; the initial idea may not always be perfect or clear, new directions can form during the process itself.
7. False – While challenges may spark creativity for some, it's not a requirement for everyone. Creativity can arise from positive experiences too.
8. False – There is no singular "right" way to be creative; it is a personal and flexible process that can vary from person to person.
9. False – Creative ideas can come from hard work, observation, research, or even failure, not just moments of sudden inspiration.
10. True – Failure is often a necessary step in the creative process, as it can lead to new insights and ideas for improvement.

The Artist's Mantra

SAY REGULARLY TO YOURSELF....

- "I AM creatively talented."
- "I CAN have original ideas."
- "Working with others is NOT cheating."
- "Deadlines CAN be helpful."
- "It is ABSOLUTELY OK if I don't know what I am doing."
- "I CAN take inspiration from any source."
- "My failures are POSITIVE."
